

Encina del Inglés 2015

In the 19th Century, Ronda was an essential part of romantic English travelers' "Great South Tour". Among these was Queen Victoria's celebrated Prime Minister, Benjamin Disraeli. This elegant wine is a tribute to those Englishmen who, through their accounts and sketches, gave this beautiful Andalusian city universal character.

Tasting note:

Lively purple in colour.

Aroma of red and Black fruits, fresh with fine herbal hints and displays some spicy notes.

In the mouth is fresh, meaty and round, with ripe tannins. Nice, with a long after-taste.
