WINEMAKING

After selection of the best Chardonnay grapes, the bunches are hand harvested. After a short maceration, the grapes are gently pressed in order to obtain the best quality must. It is then transferred into oak barrels where it ferments and ages on its own lees.

TASTING NOTE

Pale yellow colour with glints of green.

Intense and very complex aroma. Predominance of ripe fruit. Notes of citrus, acacia flower, fire perfectly assembled and bakery.

Unctuous mouth, dense, silky in balance with an excellent freshness.
